4. How does Pinkbike & GoPro pick the winner?

We will rely on a panel of talented judges in the field of creative, marketing, media, and advertising. This panel will pick the winner based on the particular judging criteria for each applicable part of the Contest with an emphasis on skill needed to produce the content set forth on the Contest Overview. We emphasize luck will play no role in this decision as our judging gurus make the final call relying on their expertise in this field.

Be aware the judges will not be required to provide feedback on each video and reserve the right to disqualify any video which is improper, unlawful, or breaks any rules of the competition. THE DECISIONS OF THE JUDGING PANEL ARE FINAL AND BINDING AS TO ALL ENTRANTS.

During any public voting periods, Pinkbike community members will be able to "vote" on their favorite entries via the Contest Website. Each person is limited to one (1) vote per day. Any use of robotic, macro, automatic, programmed or like voting methods will void all such votes. Any attempt by an entrant and/or his/her respective family/friends to vote more than the number of times authorized herein using multiple names, accounts, email addresses, paying or retaining third parties to create accounts for the purposes of voting and/or any other fraudulent mechanism, as determined by GoPro or Administrator in their sole discretion, shall give GoPro or Administrator the right to disqualify such entrant in their reasonable discretion. Any attempt by any person to fraudulently circumvent the voting restrictions in order to cast multiple votes will result in disqualification of all such votes received and may result in disqualification of the finalist for whom the improper votes were received if the GoPro or Administrator determines that that finalist was involved in any way in the perpetration of such fraud. At the end of any such voting period, the entry receiving the highest number of votes will be declared the First Place Winner, the entry receiving the second highest number of votes will be declared the Second Place Winner, and the entry receiving the third highest number of votes will be declared the Third Place Winner. In the event of a tie, the winner will be determined by the entry receiving the highest score (as originally judged) using the Judging Criteria.
